U.S. Probation Officer

Place Nashville, Tennessee

Date September 30, 2014

ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. The Defendant shall not possess, view, listen, purchase, or obtain any form of sexually stimulating material or sexually oriented material.

During the pre-interview phase of a polygraph test conducted on August 12, 2014, Mr. Williams admitted he watched an "R" rated movie containing nudity and sexually stimulating material.

2. The Defendant shall not associate with children under the age of 18 nor frequent, volunteer, or work at places where children congregate unless approved by the probation officer.

Mr. Williams reported on the polygraph test administered on August 12, 2014, that he had telephone contact with his minor niece and nephew. This contact was not approved by the probation officer.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Other than the violation behavior listed above and the prior violations adjudicated in the revocation sentence of October 4, 2012, the offender has been otherwise compliant with all standard and special conditions of supervision. This probation officer met with Mr. Williams after reviewing the results of the polygraph. Mr. Williams was redirected as to the conditions of his supervision and the importance of following those conditions. He acknowledged the violations and advised he understood the risk associated with not adhering to the conditions of supervision. Mr. Williams was placed in sex offender specific treatment in August 2012. He attends a one-hour group session every week and one-hour individual session monthly. His treatment provider advises Mr. Williams is doing well and making progress in treatment.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is respectfully requested that no action be taken by the Court at this time, however, should there be further violations requiring Court action, it is requested that these matters be heard at that time. The probation office thinks it would be in the best interest of Mr. Williams to continue in treatment and address the violation issues.

Assistant United States Attorney S. Carran Daughtrey has been consulted and concurs with this recommendation.

Approved:
Britton Shelton
Supervisory U.S. Probation Officer
